Hello

We would like to become involved. As you may already be aware we were the face of Dan Andrews campaign. Dan's office has full details of our story however rather than me uploading the large volume of documents our story / drs letters and seizure charts can be viewed at

<http://www.mullawaysmedicalcannabis.com.au/history/tara.html>

Tara is now 23 months seizure free and Sean is now 22 months seizure free. Our next battle is to be allowed to become foster carers, at the moment the agency is arguing that because we break the law to keep tara alive we are not able to care for others children, despite my youth work certificate and my family day care experience. And both of us having completely clean police checks. We will fight all the way to the top. We have been extremely lucky that our schools do administer but many others haven't been as lucky. We just want our children's medication to be recognised like any other.

I give permission for all documents on this page to be used for any public or private reading as well as web and print publishing.
